Frosh Election in Final Stages; Seven Candidates Await Ballot

By ED BYRNE

Last-minute action by Father Baird and the freshman class has drawn John Donnelly and Jim Sloan into the frosh presidential race, thus bringing to seven the total number of aspirants.

At an assembly called by Father Baird on Oct. 24, members of the class submitted nominations for men they wanted in the race. Of course, there were already five names in the hat, but it was hoped that an equal number of new candidates could be induced to run.

Results of the balloting showed at least nine men with enough support to warrant becoming candidates. Far out in front was Donnelly, with 32 votes. Following him, some distance behind, were Steve Boyle, 11; Ed Byrne and Sloan, 8; Harold Pennington and Joe Benner, 7; and Jim Greene, Lloyd-Harriss, and Jack Heldenbrand, 6. However, only Sloan and Donnelly bowed to the will of their supporters.

Thus, as the curtain goes up on the big campaign, the men who will compete for the toga are Tom McCabe, Don Merki, John Gorman, Vince Colletti, Ron Favorite, Donnelly, and Sloan.

In talking with the two new candidates, this writer noticed a striking contrast between them and the last entrant, Ron Favorite. Instead of the "bombastic, self-assured politician," we saw two quiet, unassuming individuals, each of whom, however, showed plenty of confidence and a creditable high school record.

Native Pennsylvanian

To many, Donnelly needs no introduction. He came here from St. James High School, Lancaster, Pa. (He is the only candidate not from Chicago.) John established quite a reputation on the high school gridiron. And this year opposing ball-carriers will readily attest to his ability as a college line-backer. But his talent isn't limited to athletics. In high school he served on the student council for three years and was also a member of the glee club and of the yearbook staff. Here at St. Joe's, he is majoring in Business Administration.

John and his managers, Bill Nolan and Frank Sweeney, preferred to keep his platform under wraps until the campaign, but they did tell us that he would strive for better support of the (Continued on Page Four)

St. Joe Music Pupils To Present Recital

An instrumental recital will be offered by the advanced students of St. Joseph's Music Department in late November or early December, it has recently been announced by Prof. Paul Tonner, director of the department.

The program will not last over an hour and will include piano selections, both solo and duet, as well as solo work on organ, clarinet, saxophone and cornet. Selections will be taken from Bach, Lecuona, Chopin, Grieg, Tchaikowsky, Sinding, and Nevin, and others.

Featuring some 18 students, this will be the first instrumental recital presented at Collegeville in several years.

THESPIANS ON STAGE

In final stages of rehearsal, Columbian Players Marianne Clausen, Emerson Strace, Terry MacCarthy, Joe Konkell, Ralph Neff, Dick Kotheimer, and Kitty French enact scene from the closing moments of the second act of "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Faculty Approves New Constitution; Student Council Committees Report

With its new constitution approved by the faculty and slated to go into practice within the next few weeks, the Student Council, at its third regular meeting, Oct. 31, elected to go easy until the new set-up had been accomplished.

Under the recently-approved document, a Student Union would be set up to assist and to be correlated with the Council, which would consist of nine permanent members—the four class presidents, a student-elected NFCCS head, and four chosen members from the Union. All club heads would be members of the Union, but not necessarily of the Council.

The chief business of the meeting involved the reports of the various committees. The Social Committee's report, presented by Buel Adams, chairman, mentioned the fixing of the rec hall TV set, the posting of press releases on the bulletin board here, and the possibility of several dances within the near future. It was decided not to petition that the rec hall be opened Sunday mornings because of the late breakfasts served in the cafeteria. The Council further received the information that the green room, off the main room of the rec hall, would be available for all meetings of the group.

Subsidy Requested

Phil Gilbert, director of the Athletic Committee, reported on student attendance at the pep rally before the Ambrose game and on the broadcast of the game itself. Bob Hummel then described Scholastic Committee plans for the year.

George Kuhn, president of the Don Bosco Club, pleaded the case for admission of that club to the Council and received a 12-0 affirmative vote from the members. The Council also decided to ask the administration to subsidize the Student Activities Fund for the present year, because of lack of revenue.

The next meeting will probably be a special gathering to set the provisions of the new constitution in motion. The next regular meeting is scheduled for Nov. 14.

Father General Visits College

The Very Rev. Herbert G. Kramer, Moderator General of the Society of the Precious Blood, with headquarters in Rome, has been on the campus for the past two weeks, conducting a visitation of the priests, brothers, and students preparing for the priesthood in the Society of the Precious Blood. During the visitation Father General interviews each member of the community and discusses with them matters of interest to the Society. The findings of the visitation are kept in files at the Generalate in Rome, and are accessible only to the General.

Father Kramer left the Eternal City last spring, and after visiting the Fathers of the Precious Blood doing missionary work in Chile and Brazil, came to this country to conduct his visitation of the American Province. He hopes to complete his work in this country before Christmas and return to Rome early in January. Next spring he will tour the German and Italian Provinces.

St. Joe Alumnus

First American to be elected to the highest office in his Society, Father Kramer is a native Ohioan and was a student at St. Joe in 1925-27. He was ordained in 1933 and earned his doctorate in theology at Catholic University, Washington, D. C. He was professor of moral theology and liturgy at St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio, and secretary and consultant to the American Provincial before his election to the office of Moderator General in 1947.

Curtain To Go Up On CP Production Nov. 18

Cast of 28 Set for Appearance In "Man Who Came to Dinner"

Sunday and Monday evenings, Nov. 18 and 19, at 8:00 o'clock, the curtain will go up on the initial Columbian Players' presentation of this school year, "The Man Who Came to Dinner." This popular Kaufman-Hart comedy will star junior Joe Konkell in the title role.

The play concerns a well-known critic-lecturer-author, Sheridan Whiteside, and his visit to the home of Mr. Ernest W. Stanley, Mesalia, Ohio, for dinner one winter's day. On his way out, the eminent personage slips on a piece of ice, fractures his hip, and is confined to the Stanley home for an indefinite period. Not deterred by this accident, Whiteside takes over the household as his own, entertains his queer friends there, and even endeavors to direct the lives of the Stanleys themselves.

Chicago Mothers Hold Meeting in Lewis Towers

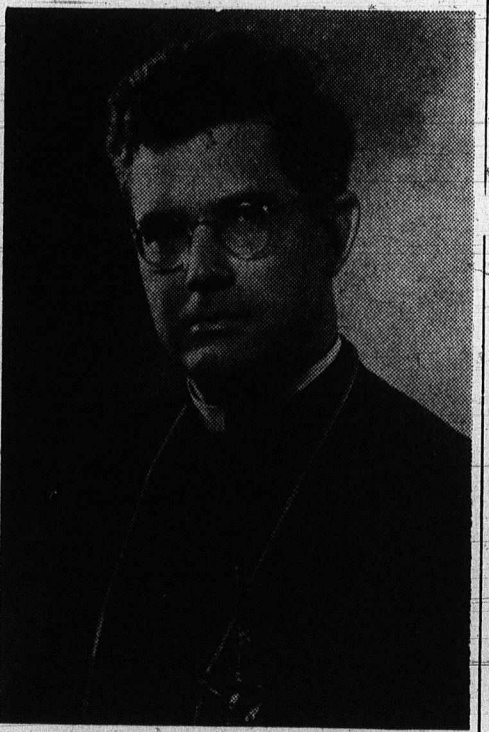

The St. Joseph's College Mothers' Club of Chicago is holding a luncheon meeting in the Chicago Room of Lewis Towers, 820 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Saturday, Nov. 17, at 12:30 P. M. The mothers of freshmen have been invited to attend.

Principal speaker at the luncheon will be the Very Rev. Raphael Gross, president of St. Joseph's, who with other members of the faculty will greet the mothers of Chicago students.

Officers Listed

Organized a little more than a year ago, the Mother's Club has done much to promote the interests of St. Joseph's in the Chicago area. Mrs. Tad O'Connell, mother of Larry and Dan O'Connell, is president of the club; Mrs. Robert Braithwaite, mother of Bob Braithwaite who graduated last June and who is now in the army at Indiantown Gap, Pa., is alumni president; Mrs. Frank Basko, mother of Don Basko, senior vice-president; Mrs. Robert Underwood, mother of Bob Underwood, junior vice-president; Mrs. James Walsh, mother of Pete Walsh, sophomore vice-president; Mrs. William Gausselein, mother of Bill Gausselein, recording secretary; Mrs. William Heniff, mother of Bill Heniff, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Paul Cherry, mother of Ron Cherry, treasurer. Father Richard Baird is moderator of the organization.

VISITATOR

V. Rev. Herbert Kramer

Veterans Perform

The rapid-fire humor of the play, the procession of Whiteside's unusual "guests," and the satirical barbs of the Man himself are enough to render the production a success. But add to this the direction of Mr. Ralph Cappuccelli, the acting of such seasoned performers as Konkell, Betty Frank, Kitty French, and George Kuhn, as well as a host of talented newcomers, and the result must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Work on props and the set is virtually finished and the cast is in the final stages of rehearsal at the present time. The 19 St. Joe students and the nine female cast members from St. Xavier's College, Chicago, hold combined practices every weekend.

The play itself will be one of the features of the Dad's Day celebration, which will also include the football game against Lewis, the afternoon of Nov. 18.

Glee Club Prepares for Annual Winter Concert

In preparation for its annual Christmas Concert with the College Band, the St. Joe Glee Club is at present running through numbers to be presented on the program.

Tentatively scheduled for Dec. 11 or 12, the concert annually features the best in musical talent that the college can produce. Furthermore, this year's program is slated to bring to the Collegeville stage performers and groups who have never before participated in these Christmas shows. Soloist Bernard Quebec, who took a third place in the 1951 Chicago Music Festival, and a chorus composed of female students, are scheduled to come here from the Hammond Extension to present several holiday numbers.

Concert Chorus Sings

The Glee Club will feature soloists and a quartet, and will join with the seminarian choir to form the College Concert Chorus. The Chorus will sing three Christmas numbers, including Silent Night and Laetentur Coeli. Numbers by the Glee Club alone will include Winter Wonder- (Turn to Page Four)

Another Viewpoint

"Line-crashing in the chow hall," according to an editorial in the last issue, "has been rapidly on the increase." This was the opinion of one of our elder colleagues, and within reasonable limits, we agree with him. But explication of the matter we find hard to accept. "Unfortunately," we were told, "the freshmen have been the worst offenders." This was the most unkindest cut of all!

For, to our recollection, during the week of orientation, when the freshman was the predominant animal on campus, these infiltration tactics were comparatively rare. Only when the sager element of our student body arrived did "that well-known pastime" come into prominence. Only then was the law of expediency promulgated. Thus the more impatient of our younger scholars owe a debt of everlasting gratitude to their unwitting instructors. From them—football players, important personages, and anyone else who has a friend—they have learned the fine art of self-interpolation!

Now we are not trying to sanctify the freshman class. Indeed, some of its constituents have shown a remarkable alacrity for adopting the loathsome practice. But at the same time, upperclassmen, let's not throw unclean stones at our brethren! Cast first the beam from our own eye. In plain everyday language, we ain't angels either! We're all one big family of sinners in this old vale of tears; so let's gather 'round and come to some sensible conclusions.

The most obvious of which is this: As long as we persist in that practice which we so readily condemn, just that long will the first-year men follow suit. Once a man has been enlightened, it's hard to return him to the Dark Ages. And we have certainly enlightened the boys! Can we blame them for being loath to accept the old-fashioned method of waiting one's turn in queue? After all, that stuff is strictly for suckers, isn't it? There is nothing specially said about it in the commandments; it's merely a custom.

But there's the rub. It's a custom. It has arisen for the common good. To wait in line for meals is a social necessity in a large group. Truly it would be wonderful if we all could be served at once, but, unfortunately, even the capable Miss Skinner hasn't achieved that degree of efficiency! We just have to wait in line. And since it is highly impracticable to determine within the confines of a meal period just who should have precedence according to rank, we must follow the first-come-first-served method. And whether we like to admit it or not, every time we furtively inject ourselves into the queue, we are telling all the "suckers" behind us that we are more important than they, and that people of our calibre just can't be bothered with the restrictions of society. And if that's humility, brother, you can have it!—E.F.B.

Three Cheers

Perhaps the strongest single contributing factor to the improved showing of our football team this year has been the rejuvenated spirit exhibited by the team and the studentbody alike. Definitely, school spirit on the campus is on the upgrade. And this spirit has, to an extent, carried over to other phases of campus life. STUFF, for instance, is presently enjoying the largest staff in its history. Likewise, the Columbian Players, though severely affected by the loss of many of last year's experienced men, are nevertheless producing a very ambitious production, requiring 19 male characters. And in many other ways, ranging all the way down to the current revival of the craze for penciling comments on various signs around the campus, the school seems to have taken on just a little bit more life.

We think this phenomenon can be ascribed in no small measure to the Freshmen, who have, so far exemplified their spirit in the face of two rather strong tests. The first, the late lamented freshman initiation, saw the Frosh, for want of higher direction, virtually initiating themselves. Secondly, the success of the Homecoming dance was aided considerably by the fine turnout of Freshmen.

This sort of spirit; this willingness to give freely of their talents to the school has been exhibited by almost every Freshman class during its first few months here. After that, it has all too frequently petered out. But, we have reason to hope, with the size of this year's class, its undoubted talent for getting things done, and its showing thus far, that the present spirit of the Freshmen will be sustained; that they will continue to go forward on all fronts: athletic, scholastic, and social.—T.J.S.

Freshmen Choose Faculty Advisors

Three items of interest to the freshman class were discussed at a Freshman Convocation, Wednesday, Oct. 24.

Father Charles Robbins, director of the Bureau of Psychological Measurement, explained the Student Training Guidance Bureau and its purpose. He stressed particularly the value of information obtained through systematized testing.

Details of the freshman campaign for the November election of class officers were announced by Father Richard Baird, class counselor. In view of the fact that only five members of the class had signified their intention of competing for office, Father Baird suggested that each member of the class cast a ballot for the man of his choosing. Results of the nominations were later published on hall bulletin boards.

Before the conclusion of the convocation Father Robbins and Baird stressed the importance of personal faculty advisors, and the freshmen were asked to make a first and second choice.

Condolence

The sympathy of the faculty and students is extended to Bill Dietz on the death of his mother. They pray that God grant her rest eternal.

The Grapevine

By VINCE BALDASSARI

**** It started where all big things start, New York City. Then came the slow journey westward with highly publicized stops at Toledo, Peoria and the land of beautiful horses and—correction—fast horses and beautiful girls, Kentucky. For the moment it has stalled in Derby-land but there are rumors circulating that the epidemic of basketball scandalitis will soon pop up in our colorful Southwest. Where will it stop? Some day we may be hearing about the big expose in Russia. "Coach Cossimarivitch Jones of Moscow Business College admits throwing game with Southern Stalingrad!" The only difference is that in Moscow, Jones would probably be given a decoration for excellence in treacherous tactics and be admitted to the espionage service.

**** Newest additions to the select circle of fixers is a referee in the pro basketball league. The only one the FBI doesn't suspect is the ticket-taker and they've got three men watching him. What's the solution? Well, it won't be found easily, but here are a few suggestions put forth by certain people who wished to remain anonymous:

"The only way to stop it is to keep the basketball scores from getting to the gamblers in the first place. The only way to do that is to forbid anyone to witness the games. In fact, don't even let the players know what the score is."

"My solution would be a rotation of players. Let the boys pick the team they're going to play for, out of a hat each week. That way, the fixers will be confused."

At least they're different!

**** We can be certain though that no such scandals shall ever take place in Collegeville. The reason I say this is because all that fixers have to offer is money, and what can St. Joe boys do with money in Rensselaer?

Pumas Host to Lewis in Finale

Lewis College, invader of the Collegeville gridiron for the final Puma home game, Sunday, Nov. 18, Dad's Day, poses a strong challenge to the St. Joe eleven. The Flyers have already defeated St. Norbert and St. Ambrose, both of whom have whipped the Pumas. Lewis is enjoying its fourth year as an organized college; the senior class will be its first graduating group. Consequently, no players have yet been lost from previous squads. Twenty-eight lettermen have returned from last year's team, 18 of them seniors. This is the squad which took the Pumas into camp in 1950 to the tune of 27-12. It goes without saying that the Lewis team looms as just about the toughest opposition St. Joe has faced this season.

The game will mark the final appearance of such senior stars as Don Schubert, Ernie Bidwell, Norb Hummel, Bill Ferguson, Joe Brosnahan, Ed Cobett, and Ed Schultheis in a Puma football uniform. Players of the highest caliber, all the graduating members of the team will be sorely missed next year.

Injuries Mar Play in Xavier Football League

With only a few more games remaining on the Xavier grid schedule, Jim Kinney's unbeaten and once tied Piggies have virtually clinched the championship. George Jocum's fast and shifty line made his Teeny Weenies contenders for a time, but his mediocre backfield never got far enough to cause the Piggies any alarm.

If the Coodies, captained by Irwin Staab, had not been so slow in starting, they might now be making a real bid for first place instead of a hopeful stab at second.

An accessible defense and an impotent offense have kept the Hot Doggies, led by Gerry Rammel, near the cellar all season. In that position are Bob Novotny's Pork and Beanies, who have won only one game, while dropping six.

One alarming aspect of Xavier football, this fall, has been the unusually large number of injuries. Frequently the referee has had to call time to assist a player from the field, and even more often to

Race Tightens As Blacksheep Suffer First I. M. Defeat

In the intramural touch football league, the Indians continued to lead the American league while the Blacksheep, who lost their first game in two years of league competition, relinquished their first-place berth to the Whiz Kids. The standings in the two leagues for the second round are as follows:

American
Indians	2	0
Artisans	1	0
Clovers	0	1
Basement Boys	0	1
Sharks	0	1

National
Whiz Kids	3	0
Blacksheep	1	1
Gashers	2	0
Bucs	0	2
Slashers	0	1
Wildcats	0	2

The law of averages caught up with the Blacksheep, Oct. 30, when they lost their first game in two years as Gus Pasquini passed his team, the Gashers, to two touchdowns and a 12-0 victory. It is now a three-way race for the title with the Whiz Kids, the Blacksheep and the steadily improving Gashers all gunning for the top spot. Other scores in the National league were; Whiz Kids 12, Slashers 0; Gashers 26, Bucks 7; Blacksheep 6, Wildcats 0; and Whiz Kids 6, Wildcats 0.

In the American league the Indians continue to dominate play, though the much-improved Artisans, under the captainship of George Kuhn, are pushing them for top billing. The Artisans have lost only one game this season. The Indians, however, have yet to be scored upon as they continued their shutout performances by beating the Sharks 19-0 and the Basement Boys by the same score. The fine play of Boyd Reutebuch, along with Captain Bob Beaupre and Nit Tabaka, have stimulated their success. In the other games in the league the Artisans beat the Clovers 6-0, and the Sharks defeated the Basement Boys 6-0.

There are six more playing dates before the finals between the two leagues.

In the Bowling League an election of officers was held. Ron Hospodka was elected president, while the vice-presidency went to Bob Beaupre and the secretary-treasurer job to Lou White.

Honors the second week went to the following: Frank Krusch, of the Spares captured individual high game with 201, as well as high average for the three games, with 173. Ken Zawodny's Maplers had high team game for the week, with 841, while Joe McNamara's Black Panther's grabbed the top slot in high team series, with a robust 2279.

For the third week of the league Joe Kukoy had high game, with 186. Joe McNamara gained high series, with 172. The high game for a team was copied by Joe McNamara's Black Panthers with a 759. Ken Zawodny's Maplers rolled the highest series for a team, with 2156.

The finals for the intramural tennis tournament have not been run off as yet, due to inclement weather and other complications. If possible, they will be played soon, if weather permits. Tom Schnieders is slated to play the winner of the Gus Pasquini-Leo Hornett contest for the championship.

nurse more common ailments. However, Xavier Hall hopes most of the injured men will be back in the line-up by the time the inter-hall games begin and make a strong bid for the coveted plaque.

Cold and Snow Fail to Hamper Run Attack Netting 292 Yds.

Collegeville's Pumas snagged their fourth win of the season and their third ICC competition by defeating Ball State 39-21, on a cold, windy field at Muncie, last Saturday afternoon.

St. Joe wasted no time in scoring their first touchdown. Schubert took the opening kickoff on his own goal line and raced all the way to the Ball State 35. After a series of rushing plays by Bidwell and Gorman had advanced the ball to the State 21, Bill Zimmer passed to Joe Pindell for the touchdown. Schubert's try for the PAT was wide.

Puma Five Face 21-Game Slate

After three weeks of evening drills, Coach Dick Scharf's basketball squad has been cut to 40 players. Unless this number proves to be too large, the squad will not be cut again.

Bob Dwyer, a junior who lettered in his first two years for St. Joe, has returned after a year in the Army, and is expected to lead the Puma five in the approaching season. Dwyer served two years in the Army prior to entering college and was recalled last year by the reserves. Five more returning lettermen, four first-year candidates help make up the men on the varsity list.

A tentative opening game with Chicago University is scheduled for Nov. 27. Another possible game with the same school is set for Jan. 8.

Definitely scheduled games for the Pumas this season are as follows:

Nov. 29	Indiana State	Away
Dec. 2	Loras	Home
Dec. 5	Lewis	Home
Dec. 9	St. Norbert	Home
Dec. 10	Wabash	Home
Dec. 13	St. Ambrose	Home
Dec. 15	Evansville	Away
Jan. 12	Louisville	Away
Jan. 16	Butler	Away
Jan. 19	Ball State	Home
Feb. 2	Loras	Away
Feb. 3	St. Ambrose	Away
Feb. 9	Indiana State	Home
Feb. 11	Evansville	Home
Feb. 14	Wabash	Away
Feb. 16	Butler	Home
Feb. 21	Valparaiso	Home
Feb. 23	Ball State	Away
Feb. 29	Lewis	Away
Mar. 1	St. Norbert	Away
Mar. 6	Valparaiso	Away

Ball State Statistics

	SJC	State
First downs	15	20
Yards rushing	292	143
Yards passing	67	151
Passes attempted	8	32
Passes completed	3	13
Had passes intercepted	0	1

Punt average yardage	37.6	33.75
Yds., kicks, punts ret'd	161	115
Ball lost by fumble	0	1
Yards lost on penalties	44	35

On the ensuing kickoff Ball State advanced the ball to the Puma eight-yard line, but lost the ball on downs. Thereafter neither side was able to move the ball consistently, and the first quarter ended with the score: St. Joe 6, Ball State 0.

Paonessa Scores

On the first play of the second quarter, Jim Righeimer intercepted a Ball State pass on their 15-yard line and was downed on the ten. After Gorman had gained two yards, Tom Paonessa scored from the eight on an end run, to make the score 12-0. Again Schubert's kick was wide.

The Pumas scored their third touchdown moments later as the result of a fumble by State, which St. Joe recovered on the 39. After going to the two-yard line, chiefly on runs by Schubert, Bidwell and Gorman, Paonessa plunged over. The try for the extra point was good, and the score read 19-0.

State Tallies

St. Joe hit paydirt again at the start of the second half on a drive from their own 48, culminating in a one-yard run by Paonessa. The placekick failed, and the score remained 25-0.

State scored midway in the third period on a drive starting from their own 47. Day scored the marker from the four and added the extra point.

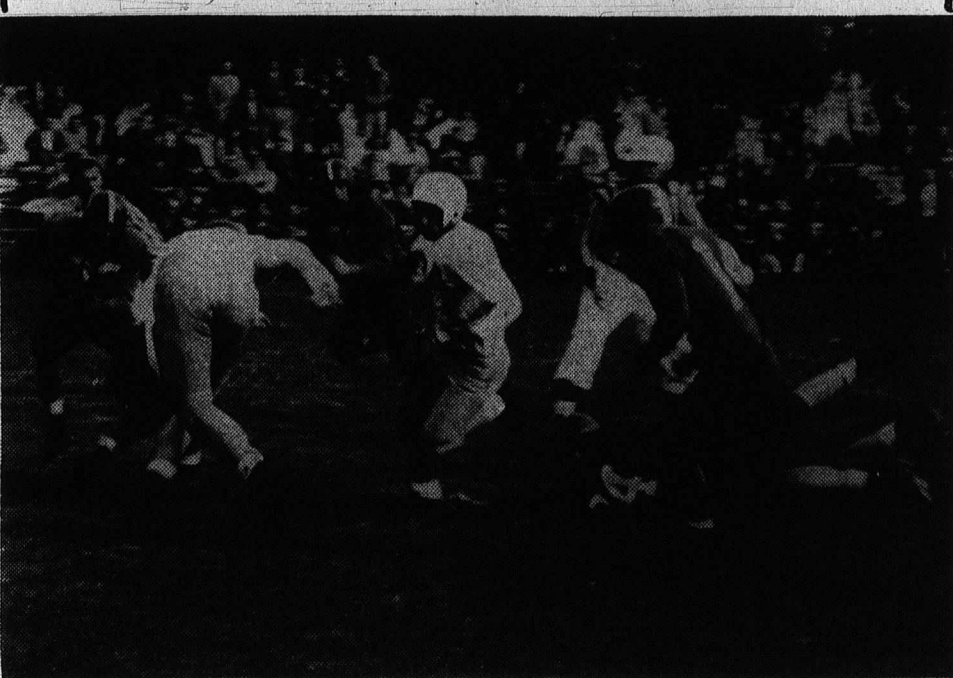

The Pumas tallied again, following the kickoff, on a 54-yard run by Don Schubert. Don added the PAT to make the score 32-7.

Bidwell Comes Through

State made its second touchdown in the fourth quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Mathias on a drive starting on State's 30. Day booted the extra point. Another Ball State tally resulted when Schnieders, attempting to punt, was forced to run with the ball on a fourth down, after a bad pass from center. From the Puma 40, State drove to the three-yard line, where Mathias passed to LaRue for the TD. The extra point was good.

The Pumas scored their final touchdown after the next kickoff on a sustained drive from their own 27. The march was highlighted by a 34-yard pass from Paonessa to Pindell. Bidwell bulled over from the one, and Schubert's kick was good. Final score: St. Joe 39, Ball State 21.

THERE GOES ERNIE!

Ernie Bidwell finds a hole in the Bulldog line, and he is off for a sizeable gain. The Pumas went on to a 12-6 win over Butler.

St. Ambrose Romps In Homecoming Win Over Pumas, 35-7

By JOHN WOLFE

The St. Ambrose Bees celebrated their 30th annual Homecoming, Oct. 28, with a convincing 35-7 victory over the St. Joe Pumas before a crowd of over 6,000 ardent fans. The Bees' tricky "V" formation was spearheaded by their bruising fullback, Art Nixon. All he did was to smash the Puma forward wall for 157 yards and three touchdowns in 21 attempts. Besides this, he threw three of Ambrose's 12 completed forward passes and punted for an average of 36.7 yards per kick. Quite a busy afternoon! As a team, the Ambrosians piled up 402 total yards, 310 coming via the ground route. Meanwhile the Pumas were limited to 225 yards, only 92 through the rough St. Ambrose line.

The Homecoming crowd didn't have to wait long to see their favorite sons dent the scoring column. The second time they gained possession of the ball, they scored in nine plays, starting from their own 32, with the troublesome Mr. Nixon going the last 14 on an off-tackle slant. The extra point was added by Tim Madden, and Ambrose led 7-0 with eight minutes left in the first period.

Nixon Scores Again

The Bees scored their second touchdown minutes later when Mikrut recovered a fumble by Dave Krigbaum, substituting for the injured Ernie Bidwell, on the St. Joe 43. A series of passes and line thrusts put the ball on the Puma 1, where Nixon went through center for his second touchdown. A pass for the extra point was good and St. Ambrose led, 14-0, with 12½ minutes gone.

Early in the second period, L. Kellner picked up a blocked kick and raced 45 yards for the third Ambrose tally. The PAT was no good and the Bees were out in front, 20-0.

From here the Pumas launched their first sustained drive of the game, marching from their own 10 to the Ambrose 15, only to lose the ball on downs. The first half produced no more scoring, and the Bees left the field with a 20-point lead.

Pumas Tally

In the third period, a 17-yard punt by Tom Schnieders set up the fourth Ambrose score. Taking over on the St. Joe 39, the Bees, behind Nixon, went all the way. Madden's kick was wide, but the score read 26-0, with three minutes of the third quarter gone.

After the ensuing kickoff, the Pumas stuck fast and scored on the second play from scrimmage, a pass from Bill Zimmer to Ed Schultheis covering 70 yards being the payoff blow. Schubert's extra point was good and the Pumas trailed, 26-7.

Safety Ups Score

Later in the same period, the Pumas drove to the Ambrose 5, where the Bees held against a first and goal to go. Early in the fourth quarter it looked as if St. Ambrose was going to score again when they had a first down on the Puma 13. But here, the St. Joe linemen put up a stone wall defense of their own and took over on downs. However, when Schnieders attempted to punt out from his own 10, the kick was blocked and rolled out of the end zone for an automatic safety, making the score 28-7.

The last Ambrose tally came on a 23-yard Matera-McIntire pass, and the PAT was good, making the final score read St. Ambrose 35, St. Joe 7.

Profs Appointed Class Counsellors

The latest addition to St. Joseph's prof-student relations has come in the persons of class moderators. The relation these moderators holds is similar to that held by individual advisors. The counsellors are to be available to help their assigned class in any difficulties or questions that might arise. Students are free to call on them at any time.

Senior advisor is Father Carl Nieset, while junior counsellor is Father Boniface Dreiling. Advising the sophomores is Father Alvin Burns, and Father Richard Baird and Mr. Jim Beane are moderators, of the freshman class.

Literary Journal Organizes Staff

At its first meeting, Oct. 24, the staff of Measure organized for the 1951-52 school term. Headed this year by Frank Pavalko, the only strictly literary organ on the campus plans to publish twice this year.

The deadline for the first issue has been set for Dec. 1, and it is hoped that the magazine will be in print sometime around Christmas. Last year's staff will meet soon to vote on the eligibility of new members. Measure hopes to use students illustrations this year and a new cover for the book will be designed. Faculty adviser of the publication is Father James I. Birkley.

Student Council and of the N.F.C.C.S. Also, he would work for better relations between students and hall prefects. "I am grateful," he said, "for the preliminary confidence the boys showed in me at the recent meeting. I am sure they would find me fully qualified to meet the responsibilities of a freshman president."

Another Chicagoan

The last candidate to toss in his hat was Jim Sloan, a graduate of Cardinal Stritch High School in Chicago. Jim boasts a great deal of practical experience in student politics. He was vice-president of his class for two years, president in his junior year, and president of the student council as a senior. He also was a member of the student orchestra and appeared in the senior class play. At St. Joe's he is majoring in accounting. In his spare time he sings second tenor in the glee club and in the choir.

Jim is eager to see "live-wire" weekends on campus every week, also, he would work for improvement of freshman living quarters on campus wherever necessary. He backs the "extra town-night" proposed by Gorman and the "committee system" proposed by Favorite. "Since the freshman class is the largest in the college," Jim says, "it must have the strongest representation. Up to now we have more or less been following the crowd; but now let's take the initiative and show the upperclassmen some real unity! I am prepared to work for just such an end." Jim is managed in his campaign by John Good.

Each of the new candidates is a resident of West Seifert.

Spanish Expert Talks to College

Revealing what is actually taking place in Spain today, what the typical Spaniard is like, and what his thoughts are on different subjects, Mr. Richard Pattee, in addressing a student convocation Oct. 29, presented many humorous and hitherto unknown facts about this nation of two million.

Well-versed in his field, Mr. Pattee has visited Spain and the Spanish-speaking Central and South American countries many times and indeed has just returned from Spain barely four weeks ago. Mr. Pattee showed a deep insight into both Spanish and American feelings on different subjects and, by examples, delineated sharply the big contrasts between the two peoples.

Spain Not Facist

The people of Spain, he remarked, are vocal, loquacious, and uncomfortably stubborn. A Spaniard will stick to his beliefs through all sorts of trials, and a greater attack against his ideals will only serve to solidify his backing of them. This is why, Mr. Pattee mentioned, Spain, cut off from trade by U. N. countries and suffering from a six-year drought, still managed to stay on its feet, and actually forced the U. N., on its part, to back down.

Mr. Pattee denied charges that Spain is, or ever was, Facist or that it had fought against the Allies in the Second World War. He gave further examples of the nation's uncompromising attitude and explained the "Protestant question" in that country. He concluded by predicting the eventual return to power of the son of Don Juan, claimant to the Spanish throne. The discussion lasted about an hour.
